

	Kiyoshi Suyehiro, IUGG Fellow	JAPAN
---	---	---------------------

Current position:

Principal Scientist, Laboratory of Ocean-Earth Life Evolution Research, Japan Agency for Marine-Earth Science and Technology (JAMSTEC) (since April, 2014)

Adjunct positions:

Visiting Professor, Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology, Japan
 Visiting Investigator, Department of Terrestrial Magnetism, Carnegie Institution of Washington, USA.
 Secretary General for International Affairs, Japan Geoscience Union.

Positions held:

President and CEO, IODP Management International, Inc. (2009-2014).
 Executive Director of Research, JAMSTEC (2003-2009).
 Director, Deep Sea Research Department, JAMSTEC (1999-2003).
 Professor, Ocean Research Institute, University of Tokyo (1996-1999)
 Associate Professor, Ocean Research Institute, University of Tokyo (1988-1995)
 Associate Professor, Faculty of Science, Chiba University (1984-1988)
 Research Associate, Faculty of Science, Tohoku University (1980-1984)

Research interests:

Plate Subduction Dynamics
 Scientific Ocean Drilling
 Physics of Earthquakes

Honors/Awards

NISTEP Scientist Award (2005) National Institute of Science and Technology Policy
 Surveys and Technology Award (1998) Japan Society for Marine Surveys and Technology

Service for IUGG/IASPEI

Chair, International Ocean Network, IASPEI, (1993-1997)
 Secretary General, IUGG-2003 Local Organizing Committee (1999-2003)
 Member, Executive Committee, IASPEI (1999-2007)
 Co-Chair Education and Outreach Commission, IASPEI (1999-2007)
 Member, Finance Committee, IUGG (2003-2011)